MRS. MARY CHURCH TERRELL IN ILLINOIS.

More Beautiful in Person, More Convincing in Argument, She Holds Spell-Bound Her Audiences.

If there is a lacking on the part of the many chautauquas previous to the visits of Mrs. Mary Church Terrell, they are evidently brought forward when it is announced that she will speak. At Danville, Ill. where Mrs. Terrell spoke on Harriet Beecher Stowe last Sunday there were fully three thousand persons to hear her, many who are interested in the Harriet Beecher Stowe Industrial Institute of this city, thronged to hear the life of this noble woman pictured as it was in beautiful language by Mrs. Terrell.

MARY CHURCH TERRELL.

Fully one thousand more attended the following afternoon and evening to listen to Mrs. Terrell and Rev. George A. Brown, president of our institute here, two shining lights of their race. The Danville Daily News has the following to say:

REV. BROWN'S TALK.

"A very enjoyable surprise was an address by Rev. George A. Brown, of this city, on the Harriet Beecher Stowe Institute, of this city. The founder explained fully the object of this school at the Chautauqua last evening and was received with much applause. Mr. Brown is the son of the late Bishop John M. Brown, who was the founder of Wilberforce College for Negroes in Ohio, and one of the founders of the Provident Hospital of Chicago, and, like his father, young Brown knows no defeat in his effort. Much opposition has been brought to bear against Mr. Brown and his associates by the ignorant Negroes and prejudiced whites, but it is predicted, that like Booker T. Washington, Mr. Brown can build a great and necessary school for his people. This institute is the only one of its kind in the northwest and Illinois is fast becoming proud of such a work."

MRS. TERRELL'S LECTURE

Mrs. Mary Church Terrell, president of the National Association of Colored Women, gave her lecture on "The Progress of the Colored Woman," at 2.30 p. m. yesterday, to a large and attentive audience. Most of those who heard this elegant lady's lecture on Harriet Beecher Stowe last night, which netted larger gate receipts than any night lecture so far in the course, were present to hear this lecture. The lecture on Mrs. Stowe was not only rich in matter, but the perfect bearing of Mrs. Terrell, her elegant but well contained diction, showing so fully the thorough scholar, the perfect lady and calm philosopher, were assurances that she would give the facts fairly as to the progress of the colored women.

Mrs. Terrell gave two of the best lectures so far in the course, and should she come this way again she will be heartily welcomed and have even a better hearing.
